To Whom It May Concern:

It is my great pleasure to recommend Andy Thomas for any speaking engagement. I had the great pleasure to listen to one of Andy's presentations on how to get a job and would not hesitate to recommend him to speak in any organization.

Andy's presentation was dynamic and relevant to the economic conditions we are facing today. Andy gave specific examples on how to market oneself in this tough economic market. As a career counselor, I found his presentation to be extremely beneficial to all of our students. In addition to being a valuable asset to our students, I was able to learn how to apply some of his techniques with the way I counsel students as well. All of the students who attended appreciated his advice and enjoyed his presentation.
